Rutherford, Samuel, 1600?-1661.
- The due right of presbyteries, or, A peaceable plea for the government of the Church of Scotland, wherein is examined: 1. The way of the Church of Christ in New England, in brotherly equality, and independency, or coordination, without subjection of one church to another. 2. Their apology for the said government, their answers to thirty and two questions are considered. 3. A treatise for a church covenant is discussed. 4. The arguments of Mr. Roberston in his justification of separation are discovered. 5. His treatise, called, The peoples plea for the exercise of prophecy, is tried. 6. Diverse late arguments against presbyterian government, and the power of synods are discussed, the power of the Prince in matters ecclesiastical modestly considered, & divers incident controversies resolved.
