An Accurate journal and account of the proceedings of the New-England land-forces, during the late expedition against the French settlements on cape Breton, to the time of the surrender of Louisbourg : containing a just representation of the transactions and occurrences, and of the behaviour of the said forces : dated, Louisbourg, Oct. 20, 1745, and in form attested by Lieut. General Pepperell, commander in chief of the forces, Brigad. General Waldo, Col. Moore, Lieut. Col. Lothrop, and Lieut. Col. Gridley of the train of artillery : all under their own hands : exhibiting a more authentic, correct, and perfect account, than any before made publick ; with a computation of the French fishery on the banks of Newfoundland, Acadia, cape Breton, and neighbouring shores, gulphs, harbours, &c. as it was carried on before the present war : the whole of which did then depend, in a great manner, on the port of Louisbourg, as a cover and protection to it, &c. : all sent over by General Pepperell himself, to his friend, Capt. Hen. Stafford, at Exmouth, Devon.

Cleaveland, John, 1722-1799.
An essay, to defend some of the most important principles in the Protestant reformed system of Christianity, on which the churches of Christ in New-England, were originally founded : more especially : the doctrine of Christ's sacrifice and atonement, as being absolutely necessary to the pardon of sin, consistently with God's infinite and unchangeable rectitude : against the injurious aspersions cast on the same, by Jonathan Mayhew, D.D., in his late Thanksgiving sermons on Psal. CXLV. 9 : in which some of the doctor's mistakes, inaccuracies and inconsistencies, are pointed out.
