One that wisheth well to all mankind.
A treatise shewing the need we have to rely upon God as sole protector of this province and the reason of man's degenerating from his state of purity, and the means whereby he may be reestablished again: also, some remarks made on those two passages in Gilbert Tennent's sermon, viz. swearing, and Sabbath-breaking, with a reply thereunto: together with something in answer to a late performance, intituled, Plain truth, discovering the falsity therein contained, with remarks on the authors [sic] irreligion: containing wholesome advice to the faithful, to hold on their way, and shewing the woful effects of transpiring with strong liquor, and the way set forth how to answer the end of our creation: with a call to the inhabitants of this province to amendment of life.
